UPCOMING ADULT PROGRAMS & ACTIVITIES
December 2017

Registration for the following programs for adults is now underway.

A Holiday Concert featuring Greg Caldarone will be held on Tuesday, December 5th at 1:30 p.m. A North Haledon resident and award-winning singer and recording artist, Caldarone will perform popular holiday standards. Residents of all communities are invited to attend. A Tuesday Talks for Seniors presentation, this free event is sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Light refreshments will be served. Please call ahead to reserve your seat!

Miss Ro and the Crafty Ladies will make holiday treats for the birds on Tuesday, December 19th at 1:30 p.m. All supplies will be provided. Space is limited, so priority will be given to Borough residents.

The library will be closed Monday, December 25th in observance of Christmas.

Gifted will be shown on Tuesday, December 26th at 1:30 p.m. Chris Evans plays the role of Frank Adler, a single man living in coastal Florida, who is trying to give his “gifted” young niece, Mary Adler, played by McKenna Grace, a normal childhood. When the seven year-old’s mathematical abilities come to the attention of Frank’s formidable mother, the girl’s chance of leading a “normal” life is threatened. A Movies Worth Watching presentation, Gifted runs 101 minutes and is rated PG-13. Refreshments will be provided by the Friends of the Library. Seating is limited, so early registration is recommended.

On Tuesday, January 2nd, Melissa Canter will present Introduction to Qigong beginning at 1:30 p.m. Qigong (pronounced “chee-gong”) is an ancient Chinese health care system that integrates physical postures, breathing techniques and focused intention. It is often called moving meditation. Canter is a certified instructor of both yoga and qigong. She has an MBA from the Leonard N. Stern School of Business at New York University and is a Phi Beta Kappa scholar. Participants will come away from the class with a “toolbox” to help bring balance and health into their daily lives. This Tuesday Talks for Seniors presentation is sponsored by the Friends of the Library and is open to residents of all communities.
